

United States[®] Census 2010

Be Counted.

Neighborhoods Count: A Census Discussion Schenectady County

Let's ensure Schenectady County receives its fair share of federal funding for schools, housing and other County programs and services. Those least likely to respond may have the most to lose, so please Join us!

Guest Speakers

Dr. Jose Cruz, Hispanic CCC – (Moderator)

Jesmarie Johnson, Schenectady CCC

Anne Pope, African Heritage CCC

Geovanny Triviño, Bureau of Immigrant Worker's Rights, NYS DOL

Lauren Rivera Whitlock, U.S. Census Partnership Specialist

Learn about

- The importance of the Census
- How Census data is used
- Challenges in counting hard-to-reach communities
- Confidentiality
- How to be counted
- Tools available to community organizations

Sponsored by

Hispanic Complete Count Committee
Schenectady Complete Count Committee

In Partnership with

Local elected officials
African Heritage Complete Count Committee
Schenectady's Hispanic Heritage Committee

Let's become informed to act and be counted!

April 1, 2010
6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Iglesia de Dios
920 State Street, Schenectady, NY

Refreshments will be provided
Kids Corner & child care will be available

IT'S IN OUR HANDS

For information or to R.S.V.P. by March 29th call Gloria Herman at (518) 225-4703 at Tesoros Properties